

VOC Hosts New Vietnam Exhibit, Senator Tom Cotton

VOC President and CEO Dr. Eric Patterson and Viet American Foundation leaders conduct the exhibit ribbon cutting.

On January 18, the Victims of Communism Memorial Foundation (VOC) proudly welcomed the Viet American Foundation to celebrate the official opening of our new temporary museum gallery on Vietnam's enduring fight for freedom against communism. Entitled "The Truth" the exhibit explores the communist takeover of the country, the brave Vietnamese who fought for freedom, and the ongoing oppression by the communist regime. The exhibit was curated by the Viet American Foundation.

Museum visitors at the exhibit opening.

Save the Date

VOC's next temporary exhibit will be "Operation Pedro Pan," America's mission to save Cuban children from communism. The exhibit will be on display from June-December 2025.

On April 2, VOC and Hillsdale College hosted a book signing and discussion with Senator Tom Cotton on his must-read Seven Things You Can't Say About China. He spoke on how deeply the Chinese Communist Party has infiltrated America, how China persecutes Christians and commits genocide against religious and ethnic minorities, the alarming rise of China's armed forces and nuclear arsenal, and the danger our children face from China's influence on Hollywood, the NBA, TikTok, and so much more.

Educating the Next Generation

This year to date, VOC has educated over 450 students and trained 1,145 teachers on the history and horrors of communism. We host student groups for museum tours and presentations by experts and witnesses of communism as well as conduct teacher seminars both in person and online.

On March 11, the Crucial Communism Teaching Act was introduced in the U.S. Senate and House of Representatives. This bill makes curricular materials available through VOC to help educate high school students about the dangers of communism, and how such systems are contrary to the founding principles of freedom and democracy that we cherish in the United States.

Between the fourth edition of VOC's high school curriculum, Communism: Its Ideology, Its History, and Its Legacy, our free online advanced curriculum, teacher certification course, Witness Project documentary series, Ten Great Speeches Against Communism textbook, and the Victims of Communism Museum in Washington, D.C., we are proud to offer educational resources for teachers and students to study the criminal past and ongoing tyranny of communism.

VOC Chairman Dr. Elizabeth Spalding presents to The Heritage Foundation's spring intern class.

Students interact with the museum Witness Project exhibit which prompts them to imagine life under communism.

Students from Impact 360 tour the museum galleries and receive a lecture/Q&A with our team.

A student from Westminster Christian School admires The Gulag Collection, 50 paintings by Ukrainian artist and Gulag survivor Nikolai Getman.

Partnerships with Key Allies

On March 25, VOC hosted the Baltic Foreign Ministers for a discussion on Baltic security, Russia's ongoing war in Ukraine, and the transatlantic alliance.

On February 25, VOC's Dr. Patterson met with Romanian Prime Minister Marcel Ciolacu in Bucharest to discuss VOC resources.

On March 13, Hungarian State Secretary for National Policy Lőrinc Nacsa toured the VOC Museum, exploring exhibits on Cardinal József Mindszenty and the 1956 Hungarian Freedom Fighters.

On February 4, VOC welcomed Bishop Azad Marshall, Moderator Bishop of the Church of Pakistan to the VOC Museum. Pakistan is one of the many Central Asian countries that fell victim to communism.

At the International Religious Freedom Summit on February 4, VOC's Dr. Adrian Zenz, took center stage to speak on a panel exploring the crimes of the Chinese Communist Party and Beijing's attack on religious freedom.

On February 3, VOC hosted a fireside chat featuring Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone in partnership with the Benedict XVI Institute and the International Religious Freedom Summit.

Expansion of VOC Board of Trustees

VOC announces the election of Dr. Katrina Lantos Swett and Andrea Lauer Rice to its Board of Trustees. Dr. Lantos Swett serves as President of the Lantos Foundation for Human Rights and Justice, established in 2008 to continue the legacy of her father, the late Congressman Tom Lantos, who served as Chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee and was the only Holocaust survivor ever elected to the US Congress. Andrea Lauer Rice has served as President of the Hungarian American Coalition, the community's largest umbrella organization, for the past eight years, and is co-founder of Memory Project, an award-winning collection of 150 video-based life histories of Hungarians who immigrated to the US.

Thank You to Our Supporters!

Our work is made possible by the generosity of our donors who value our mission. We are grateful for your support, which enables us to educate the next generation about the detriments of communism.

We especially recognize the following members of our Victims of Communism Museum Remembrance Society who have given a leadership gift in the past quarter.

Pillars of Memory

Amb. Aldona Z. Woś and Mr. Louis DeJoy

Flames of Liberty

Mr. Maximo Alvarez
Dr. and Mrs. Ed and Linda Feulner
Mr. Paul Schultheis
Mr. Thomas L. Throop

Voices for Freedom

Mr. and Mrs. Henry and Peggy Miyares
Drs. Omar and Josefina Vento

For more information about the VOC Museum Remembrance Society and to join, visit victimsofcommunism.org/remembrance-society.